

(a) layered architecture—the LLM proposes raw inputs; deterministic calculators compute; the verifier re-proves

(b) bounded agentic workflow—one goal in, a design whose every number was computed by calc/ and re-proved by verify/ comes out

